Saint Joseph of Arimathea Summer Session

The College Summer Session will take place the last week of July [from Sunday evening to Friday afternoon, July 23rd to July 28th, 2023 – both in person and on the Zoom platform. Canon Steven Dart will be the Summer Session Chaplain coordinating daily activities and worship services. Father Dr. Paul Russell will teach (via Zoom) a morning class on Reading the Apostolic Fathers and Dr. Paul Evans will teach an in person afternoon class on a Survey of Canon Law. Students and postulants may participate in the classes in person or via Zoom.

The approximate daily agenda is as follows:

- 8:30 a.m. - Morning Prayer in the Chapel
- 10:00 a.m. - Morning Class in the Library or Classroom
- 12:15 p.m. - Holy Communion in the Chapel
- 2:00 p.m. - Afternoon Class in the Library or Classroom
- 4:30 p.m. - Afternoon Tea hosted by Canon Dart
- 5:15 p.m. - Sung Evening Prayer

The fee for the one-week session is $150.00 which includes housing. Meals are “on your own” but we have a kitchen and dining area available. Contact the Provost at bishopashman@gmail.com if financial aid is needed. Please note that postulants for Holy Orders move to the top of the financial need list.

In our modern age with its demands and complexities, many men are forced to “read for orders.” The primary purpose of the St. Joseph’s Summer Session is to assist men to prepare for ordination as deacons and priests in the Anglican Province of Christ the King. One important goal is to form a sense of community not just in common study with rigorous standards but also in common worship and fellowship. To that end, (permanent) deacons, priests and students from other jurisdictions are always welcome.

Please email a copy of this form to the Provost (bishopashman@gmail.com) and another copy to the Summer Session Chaplain (canondart@christchurchaz.org); and a hard copy to the Seminary at 2316 Bowditch, P.O. Box 40020, Berkeley, CA 94704.

Yours faithfully in our Blessed Lord,

Seminary Fall Semester

The Fall Semester is still in the planning stages but at least four to five courses are planned: A Survey of the New Testament, World History and Religion I, Ecclesiastical Latin V (with the possibility of Ecclesiastical Latin I as well), Biblical Greek II, and (we hope) Canon Law which would be a perfect follow up to Summer Session.

The Bishop Morse Youth Camp

- Here is the latest on the camp.
- We have about five to seven potential campers from four parishes.
- We are scuttling the houseboat plan and going back to plan A using Saint Luke's.
- So one more time, let me or Bishop Mitchell or Father Lawrence know your intentions.
- We have plans to make: meals, day trips, instruction, etc.
- We hope to see as many campers as possible.
- And yes, there will be a camp
- Send inquiries to bishopashman@gmail.com

Ordinations in Oklahoma

It is a joy to announce that Dr. Richard Kishur and Mr. Charles Newcomb, having passed their written and oral canonical examinations, will (Deo volente) be made Deacons on the Sunday after Ascension Day (May 21) by the Right Reverend Peter F. Hansen at the Church of the Holy Cross in Oklahoma City.
