Michaelmas Course Offerings

As time goes by the Seminary wants very much to offer classes in which the laity will be able to participate more fully. Indeed, the primary goal remains to prepare men for Holy Orders, but a well-educated laity (including our youth and confirmands) is equally important for a successful Province of Christ the King. We have been asked about a Mission Statement; and here it is, that we educate and re-educate and re-educate our clergy and laity in the fundamentals of the Faith once delivered to the saints.

On Tuesdays at 5:00 p.m. Pacific Time (6:00 p.m. Mountain Time, 7:00 p.m. Central Time, and 8:00 p.m. Eastern Time), Archbishop Schultz will teach the first half of his Survey of the 1928 Book of Common Prayer. This class (and its spring second half) is an excellent refresher course especially for laity and clergy who did not matriculate from St. Joseph's. This class will begin on September 17th.

On Wednesday September 18th, Bishop Ashman will teach a class on the development of early Christian Theology based on the first seven Ecumenical Councils. This class will be designed for clergy and laity, especially deacons who are looking to advance to the priesthood. This class will be offered at 11:00 a.m. Pacific Time, Noon Mountain Time, 1:00 p.m. Central Time and 2:00 p.m. Eastern Time.

On Thursday (beginning September 19th) at 5:00 p.m. Pacific Time) Bishop Ashman will teach a Confirmation Class for both those who want a Confirmation Class refresher and those who want to teach Confirmation Classes. Like Archbishop Schultz's Prayer Book class, this course is an excellent review of our fundamentals. Note that the Saturday section (previously mentioned) will not be offered. It was just too much for the instructor.

On Fridays (beginning September 20) Bishop Ashman will resume his second year Biblical Greek and third year Ecclesiastical Latin classes at 10:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. Pacific Time. And there are two new people interested in first year Ecclesiastical Latin. This class will also be offered on Fridays after Advanced Ecclesiastical Latin and Biblical Greek at 3:00 p.m.
